

2018 IWBC "WOMEN IN BASEBALL"

CAMP INSTRUCTORS BIOS

Marv Foley

Colorado Rockies

Marv is one of the most respected catching instructors in the game today. Marv had a 7 year major league career as a catcher with the Chicago White Sox and Texas Rangers and is currently the catching coordinator with the Colorado Rockies. He is the only minor league manager ever to win league championships in all three major Triple-A leagues (International League, American Association and Pacific Coast League).

Mark Brewer

Colorado Rockies

Mark is one of the most respected pitching coaches today in professional baseball. There are dozens of "current" big leaguers that have gotten to the top of their profession because of his tutelage.

Justine Siegal

Justine became the first female coach of a professional men's baseball team in 2009. In 2011, she became the first woman to throw batting practice to MLB team, Cleveland Indians during spring training. In 2015, she was hired by the MLB's Oakland Athletics for a two-week coaching stint in their instructional league in Arizona, becoming the first female coach employed by a Major League Baseball team. She also coached Team Israel at the 2017 World Baseball Classic in March 2017. Justine is an American baseball coach and sports educator who is particularly interested and involved in sports gender equality, and noted for her success in coaching baseball in contexts that were previously male-only.

Hal Lanier

National League Manager of the Year

Hal Lanier is a 10 year Major League veteran infielder with the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees. A NL leading infielder, Hal is also a great leader of men, guiding the Houston Astros to 96 wins, a franchise record. Not only did Hal win the National League Manager of the Year with the Astros, he also won a World Series ring for being the third base coach of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1982. He is currently the manager of the Ottawa Champions.

Dave Marcon

Dave is considered a "pitching guru" in pro baseball. Since his playing days in the Blue Jays and Tigers organizations, Dave has traditionally made every pitcher he has worked with a better pitcher. Dave will have them leave with sound pitching mechanics and more velocity.

Nick Belmonte

Nick was an All-Star minor league player and had the best winning percentage in all of professional baseball as field manager when he led the Salt Lake Trappers to the Pioneer League Championship...he also can be seen as a color commentator on ESPN and the SEC Network. Nick still holds the University of Florida stolen base record and is also currently a pro scout with the Chicago Cubs.
